Fashion Company*

Philosophy

Incor3 philosophy is to combine his fashion production with the customer satisfaction: an effective method to affiliate the consumer to brand ensuring a trendy product, excellent in quality and price.

Company

INCOR3 is an Italian company with more than 40 years experience both in own and third-parties fashion production (male and female collections).

During these years, InCor 3 has adapted to the fashion market evolution and to the globalization and it has become one of the most closed partner of the Italian GDO system, producing more than 350,000 items of retail brands like Karen Kate, McCollum, Young Artists, andYou.

In 1995 InCor3 has launched his own collection branded X-Cape in the urban-fashion sector, which has become in a few years an icon in the teenager universe.

X-Cape: a young and casual outfit that finds its core business in the manufacture of jeans, where the company continually invests in research and style to produce garments always up-to-date.
